FLATWARE

We offer a wide selection of flatware to complement any event, from minimalist modern to over-the-top traditional.

As a health precaution, all flatware pieces are pre-packaged and sealed in groups of 10.

"Thank YOU for making my event totally stress-free! You and your staff were on top of every detail! The ordered items came in blemish-free and ready to use; the delivery men were VERY kind in placing the tables where I needed them. I tried counting the many items I had to return but apparently got one of my own forks in the mix and [one of your staff] delivered it personally to me the next week along with a stack of Celebration Event cards which I had asked her for. I am keeping those at my store so when customers come in, I can hand them out and recommend Celebration Events!

Thanks again for your help with my order... I wish I could write some "constructive criticisms" but there simply were none—it was perfect!"

Equipment will be reserved upon receipt of a signed rental contract and a reservation deposit. The required deposit is 50% of total charges; however, this does not restrict you from adding equipment to the rental contract. Early reservation ensures product availability. Remember, equipment availability is on a first-come, first-serve basis. If a product is unavailable, we will make every effort to secure the equipment from our vendors; however, this cannot be guaranteed.

The full balance of your order is due prior to delivery of equipment. We accept Visa, Mastercard, American Express, and Discover cards. Checks are accepted. However, in some cases a credit card on file may be required.

Commercial charge accounts may be set up subject to credit approval. Ask one of our sales consultants for more information regarding commercial charge accounts.
